

VOL. XV

NIAGARA FALLS, SEPTEMBER 24, 1908

89

Hotel GOSSIP . . . AND PERSONALS.

Mr. John P. Colling of Toronto is at the Kaltenbach.

Madame de Volmout and maid, of Paris, is a prominent Parisian who is staying at the Prospect.

Mr. and Mrs. Rigitte, of Edinburgh, Scotland, are among the foreign travelers sojourning at the Imperial.

Mr. E. W. Spindler and Mr. N. D. Sharpe are two Germans.

A Philadelphia lady who is enjoying a Niagara outing at the Temperance.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Murray and Miss Murray of Chicago, while visiting the Falls have apartments at the Temperance.

Miss K. Larib, Miss J. Lamb, of Ypsilanti, Mich., and Mrs. E. D. Henshaw and son of Brantford, Ont., are guests at the Prospect.

Miss Tonchard, of New York, and Miss Nelder, of New Jersey, are two charming young ladies, who are sojourning at the Imperial.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Vincent, of Rochester, and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hardin, of Philadelphia, have rooms at the Imperial for a Niagara sojourn.

Mr. Charles R. Hagg, of Boston, Mr. B. B. Holmes, of Bucyrus, O., and Mr. M. L. Hicker, of Los Angeles, are a trio of gentlemen registered at the Empire.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Colwell, of Providence, and Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Eldred, of Narragansett Pier, form a pleasant

Tourist GOSSIP . . . AND PERSONALS.

Mr. J. W. Stacy, of Boston, is a guest at the Empire.

Mr. D. Rose, of New Zealand, is a prominent guest at the Clifton, American side.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bryant of Perals are foreign guests who are stopping at the Kaltenbach.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith, of New York, are prominent arrivals at the Clifton.

W. B. O'Donnell of Grand Rapids are prominent arrivals at the Kaltenbach.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Coath of Baltimore, while enjoying Niagara's beauties, have rooms at the Imperial.

Mrs. M. Lonstorf, Mrs. I. C. Lonstorf and Miss Lonstorf are a trio of Milwaukee ladies who have apartments at the Prospect.

Dr. and Mrs. May of Dresden, Germany, are enjoying a visit to Niagara and have apartments at the Clifton, Canada side.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knecht and daughter, Miss Knecht of Baltimore have rooms at the Kaltenbach for a Niagara visit.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Milroy of Houston, Tex., are Southerners who are enjoying a Niagara sojourn at the Kaltenbach.

Mr. S. Yoshimura, Mr. T. Hara and Mr. K. Tijima are three Japanese tourists from Tokio, who have rooms at the Prospect during their Niagara outing.

Hotel GOSSIP . . . AND PERSONALS

Mr. J. Stracken, of Havana, is at the Prospect.

Mrs. L. Creighton of Meadville, Pa., is a prominent lady guest at the Lafayette.

Mr. R. H. Barclay of Louisville, Ky., is at the Temperance for a short sojourn.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Johnson, of Chicago, while visiting the Falls have rooms at the Clifton, American side.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lee and Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Herman of Lock Haven, Pa., are prominent arrivals at the Falls.

Miss Ethel Hodgkins and Miss M. E. Guild of Washington, D. C., are sojourning at the Clifton, American side.

Mr. Arthur Woltersdorf and Miss Olga Woltersdorf, of Chicago, are enjoying a Niagara outing at the Clifton, American side.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Langmuir of Toronto, were prominent guests at the Clifton, Canada side, yesterday and today.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Lewis and family are well known Montreal people who have apartments at the Clifton, Canada side, for a Niagara visit.

Mrs. E. B. Stone, Miss Harriet Stone, Miss Marion Stone, Mrs. J. D. Sprawl and Miss Natalie Hunt are a prominent party of Californians who are guests at the Imperial.